Frequently Asked Questions

Do children count towards guest numbers and deposits?

Yes, children are included in guest numbers and deposit requirements if they require a seat at the table.

What happens if my guest numbers change?

We understand plans can change. If you need to amend your booking, please let us know as soon as possible. For larger tables, notice periods apply as outlined above to avoid losing any deposit payments.

When will my deposit be refunded?

If your deposit is being refunded, this will be processed on the day of your visit. Please allow up to 10 working days for the funds to appear back in your account.

Why is a pre-order needed for larger tables?

Pre-orders allow our kitchen team to prepare fresh dishes efficiently and ensure the best experience for your group. Without a pre-order, there may be longer waiting times and limited dish availability.

Can I order from menus I've seen online?

To avoid disappointment, please only select dishes from the menus provided in your pre-order email link, as these reflect availability for your booking date.

I forgot to provide my loyalty app at the time of payment, can I get my loyalty points added?
